

Querdenker Movement Protest against the Government's Public Health Measures (April 21, 2021)

Abstract

Demonstrations and rallies were held by the so-called Querdenker movement out of displeasure at the federal government's coronavirus measures and a planned nationwide lockdown. The demonstrator's sign with the inscription "No to the Citizens' Disempowerment Act" opposed the Infection Protection Act and the government regulations, which were considered too radical.
