

“Our State Ministry in Uniform (With One Exception)” (March 28, 1889)

Abstract

The caption to this cartoon by F. Graetz reads: “Reviewing Officer Prince Bismarck: My heavens – How did that civilian get in here?!” The civilian in question is Prussian Minister of Justice Hermann von Schelling (1824–1908), who held office in Bismarck’s cabinet from 1879 to 1889. The cartoonist meant to suggest not only that Bismarck demanded military-style obedience from his fellow cabinet members but that non-military pedigrees and opinions among ministers of state were conspicuous mainly by their absence.

Source

Source: Title page, colored, by F. Graetz. Ronde officer Prince Bismarck: “By golly, – how did the civilian get in there?,” Lustige Blätter, March 28, 1889.

bpk-Bildagentur, image number 30012810. For rights inquiries, please contact Art Resource at requests@artres.com (North America) or bpk-Bildagentur at kontakt@bpk-bildagentur.de (for all other countries).

© bpk

Recommended Citation: “Our State Ministry in Uniform (With One Exception)” (March 28, 1889), published in: German History in Documents and Images,

---

<<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/forging-an-empire-bismarckian-germany-1866-1890/ghdi:imagine-1479>> [February 07, 2025].