

Battle of Mühlberg on April 24, 1547 (17th century)

Abstract

At the Battle of Mühlberg on the Elbe River, the combined forces of Emperor Charles V and Duke Moritz of Saxony defeated the Schmalkaldic League. The victory ended the Protestant resistance. This military map shows Charles' victory in the battle.

Source

Source: Military map of the Battle of Mühlberg (Battle at Lochau Heath), victory of Emperor Charles V over the troops of the Schmalkaldic League on April 24, 1547, unknown artist, etching, 17th century. Staatliche Kunstsammlungen Dresden, Kuperstichkabinett, <https://skd-online-collection.skd.museum/Details/Index/1587856>

SKD

Recommended Citation: Battle of Mühlberg on April 24, 1547 (17th century), published in: German History in Documents and Images, <<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/from-the-reformations-to-the-thirty-years-war-1500-1648/ghdi:image-3342>> [April 02, 2025].