

Emperor Maximilian I (c. 1518)

Abstract

Maximilian I (b. 1459, r. 1486/93-1519) reigned over the Holy Roman Empire during the age of political reform, which began at the Diet of Worms in 1495. This portrait is a woodcut by Albrecht Dürer.

Source

Source: Emperor Maximilian I. Woodcut (c. 1518). Rosenwald Collection, NGA, available online at: <https://www.nga.gov/collection/art-object-page.58111.html>

Recommended Citation: Emperor Maximilian I (c. 1518), published in: German History in Documents and Images, <<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/from-the-reformations-to-the-thirty-years-war-1500-1648/ghdi:image-3272>> [April 03, 2025].