

Leonhard von Eck (1553)

Abstract

Leonhard von Eck (1480-1550) was a Bavarian nobleman who served as chancellor of Bavaria for thirty years. The woodcut below is one of two pendant portraits commissioned by his widow, Felicitas von Freyberg (1492-after 1553).

Source

Source: Hanns Lautensack, Leonard von Eckh (1553), Rosenwald Collection, National Gallery of Art, available online at: <https://www.nga.gov/collection/art-object-page.37131.html>

Recommended Citation: Leonhard von Eck (1553), published in: German History in Documents and Images, <<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/from-the-reformations-to-the-thirty-years-war-1500-1648/ghdi:image-3264>> [April 03, 2025].