

Michael Jacobi, Bist du denn blind, o Teutsches Reich (1649)

Abstract

---

North German church musician and composer Michael Jacobi (1618-1663) is best known for his collaboration with Lutheran pastor and poet Johann Rist. This song is taken from Das friedewünschende Teutschland [Peace-Wishing Germany], a drama Rist published in 1649 for which Jacobi wrote the music.

Source

---

Source: Michael Jacobi, “Bist du denn blind, o Teutsches Reich,” 1649. In Johann Rist, Das friedewünschende Teutschland, Hamburg, 1649. Performed by Ensemble Weser-Renaissance Bremen, Manfred Cordes, conductor.

Recommended Citation: Michael Jacobi, Bist du denn blind, o Teutsches Reich (1649), published in: German History in Documents and Images, <<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/from-the-reformations-to-the-thirty-years-war-1500-1648/ghdi:audio-5076>> [April 03, 2025].