

German-Danish War: Destroyed Mill near Düppel/Jütland (1864)

Abstract

Prince Friedrich Karl of Prussia (fourth from right) and his staff in front of the destroyed Düppeler Mill. The storming of the fortifications at Düppel during the German-Danish War came to symbolize Prussian military efficiency and made the Danish defeat foreseeable. Unknown photographer, near Düppel/Jütland, April 18, 1864.
