

Jews as Sexual Predators (1935)

Abstract

Germany's Jews were often depicted in Nazi propaganda as greedy capitalists, sexual predators, and criminals. Julius Streicher, the Gauleiter of Franconia and the editor of Der Stürmer, an antisemitic tabloid, was one of the most prominent proponents of such views. The author of the following account, M. Corleis, cites Streicher's newspaper as the source of his information. This was no doubt an attempt to lend an air of authority to this antisemitic piece. Here Corleis describes Jewish men who abused, violated, and, in one case, murdered Christian women and girls. Charges of sexual promiscuity, depravity, and violence were particularly powerful ways to demonize Jews, because seduction and rape raised fears of so-called racial degeneration and emasculated non-Jewish men who were unable to protect their women from alleged Jewish perversions. Counteraction was therefore urgent in order to bring an end to racial defilement and to restore Aryan men to their rightful place as symbols of masculine strength and authority. The author claims to connect these predators to the former "Jew-friendly" republican government and suggests that Hitler's government, in contrast, was addressing these crimes and protecting German women from the danger of Germany's Jews.

The Race of Sexual Offenders and of Pedophiles in Particular

As is generally known, the past Jew-friendly government did everything to conceal the infamous actions of the Jews. Member of Parliament Julius Streicher did provide evidence for a lot of Jewish sexual offenses already during the black-red [coalition] system. Of these we will only pick out the most blatant cases, which he published in his weekly Der Stürmer in Nuremberg over the course of a year.

1. The Jew Kurt Meyer, aged 26, continued to harass his Christian housemaid until she gave in to him. When she became pregnant, he literally slaughtered her with the help of his father. The two of them then proceeded to completely dismember the body. In the surrounding area very small pieces of flesh were found strewn about everywhere, some even hung in trees, and the unrecognizable skull was found lying in a distant field. While being led to the scene of the crime by the police, this brazen Jew boy even whistled popular tunes. Under the red-black Jew-friendly government, he only got 15 years. This happened in Paderborn.
2. The Jew Louis Schloß in Nuremberg owned several factories and specifically charged girls with luring non-Jewish girls from the neighborhood from his factories and offices to his residence. Here they were first made drunk by wine and liquor, then drugged, undressed, whipped and finally violated. Then the Jew Louis Schloß burned his monogram "LS" onto their bodies with a red-hot piece of wire so that—as the court trial revealed—they could never again be with another man.
3. The Jew Singer was convicted in February 1933 of having sexually abused 30 little Christian girls aged between 6 and 10 years. He had opened a candy store that also sold paper goods and stationery close to a school in the Vienna suburb of Hietzingen in order to execute his diabolic plan on a large scale. His wife, who engaged in lesbian love, approved of her husband's actions since it was children of "Goyim," meaning non-Jews, and thus not a crime according to the teachings of the Talmud. In this secret Jewish book of law, it is written under Aboda Sarah 37a: "When a non-Jewish girl is 3 years and a day old, the Jew may violate her." The correct interpretation of this passage of the law has been confirmed before the Nuremberg jury court by the well-known Talmud scholar Dr. Erich Bischoff.

This is only a small selection of the many, many Jewish sex crimes of which only the smallest number come to light because shame usually prevents victims from pressing charges. Those who are not satisfied with these cases may simply read a few issues of Der Stürmer or the extensive book Der Jude als Rassenschänder by Dr. Plischke, NG Verlag, Berlin-Schöneberg. The abundance of uncovered sexual offenses that have been perpetrated especially by Jewish employers against their many female employees will open everyone's eyes to the fact that this isn't just about the satisfaction of abnormal erotic appetites, but also about the planned destruction of our people's strength by demoralizing German girls and women.
