

Children from Eleven Countries (1979)

Abstract

This photograph features a wall bearing the names and flags of the eleven home countries of grade school students at the Heinrich-Zille School in Berlin's Kreuzberg neighborhood: 1) The Federal Republic of Germany; 2) Yugoslavia; 3) Turkey; 4) Lebanon; 5) Syria; 6) Portugal; 7) Italy; 8) Spain; 9) Greece; 10) Jordan; and 11) India. The list of nations includes the countries from which guest workers were once recruited: Italy, Greece, Spain, Turkey, Yugoslavia, and Portugal. It also includes the birth countries of many asylum-seekers: countries with high levels of poverty and ethnic and religious conflicts (India), as well as states ravaged by civil war (Lebanon) and neighboring lands (Syria and Jordan).

Source

Source: Children from 11 countries enrolled at the Heinrich Zille School in Berlin-Kreuzberg meet during recess for sports and games in front of a “wall of nations” on which they have painted the names and emblems of their home countries.

Bundesrepublik Deutschland – Fotodienst 4-79/Nr. 905. German Information Center.

Courtesy of the German Information Center

Recommended Citation: Children from Eleven Countries (1979), published in: German History in Documents and Images, <<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/two-germanies-1961-1989/ghdi:image-2375>> [May 05, 2024].