

The German-French Friendship Treaty, signed in Paris on January 22, 1963, by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle.

Source

Source: Federal Republic of Germany – Photo Service 3 – 1987/ No. 2334. IN-Press/Bundesbildstelle Bonn. German Information Center.

Courtesy of German Information Center

Recommended Citation: The German-French Friendship Treaty, signed in Paris on January 22, 1963, by Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle., published in: German History in Documents and Images, <<https://germanhistorydocs.org/en/two-germanies-1961-1989/ghdi:image-5037>> [May 21, 2024].